

f1/2011/51 04103/2011 CI2 04/03/11

10

ROHILKHAND MEDICAL COLLEGE, BAREILLY

First Terminal Examination D

M.B.B.S. (2009 Batch)

FORENSIC MEDICINE AND TOXICOLOGY

Time: Three Hours] [Maximum Marks: 40

Note: Attempt all questions.

(PART-A)

Maximum Marks -20

Classify mechanical injuries. Describe the pattern of entry wound of a firearm fired from different distances. (8 marks)

2. Write notes on the following:

- a. Superimposition technique.
- b. Police inquest. (Marks: 3 each)

3. Write notes on the followings:

- a. Hermaphrodite
- b. Medico-legal importance of 12 years of age
- c. Dying declaration. (Marks: 2 each)

(PART-B)

Maximum Marks-20

1. A 25 years old female's charred dead body with pugilistic attitude was recovered by police from a house. How will you arrive to a conclusion that the cause of death was asphyxia as a result of ante mortem burn?

(Marks-8)

2. Write short notes on the following:

- a. Vicarious responsibility.
- b. Functions of Indian Medical Council (Marks: 3 each)

3. Write in brief on the following:

- a. Delusion
- b. Feigned insanity
- c. Testamentary capacity. (Marks: 2 each)